To the Public.

Having made a change in our management does in no way indicate that a change will be made in the previous policy of the company.

Permit us to thank you for your patronage in the past, and we assure you that we will strive to merit your future favors.

Our motto in the future will remain QUALITY and SERVICE, hence, if either should fail in our undertakings to serve you with the best, will you not kindly give us an opportunity to guard against a repetition by giving the management information in the matter.

Respectfully,
Grayum Drug Company.
